SALA'S CAMP

SALA'S CAMP ACTIVITIES INCLUDED

GAME DRIVES AND BUSH BREAKFASTS

Our game drive vehicles ensure maximum game viewing and comfort. They are kitted out with Maasai blankets and ponchos to keep you warm, suncream, fridges with cold drinks, hot drinks, books, sweets (everything to keep you happy during a game drive). We even have stoves for freshly cooked bush breakfasts, which include fried eggs or omelettes and pancakes cooked to order.

BUSH LUNCH AND BUSH DINNER

We can offer bush lunches overlooking the Tanzanian border in the shade of a sausage tree beside the Sand River. When the Sand River is dry we can set up dinner in the riverbed surrounded by candles where guests can enjoy our delicious Barbeque.

SUNDOWNERS

An essential part of any safari experience. Watch the sun set over the vast animal filled plains of the Masai Mara.

BUSH VOLLEY BALL

Enjoy a game of Bush Volley ball in the crocodile and hippo free section of the Sand River in front of Sala's Camp.

GYM IN A BAG

Each tent is provided which you are welcome to use during your stay. Each bag contains a yoga mat, skipping rope and post safari stretch card to take you through some simple exercises to ease and relax.

NATURE WALKS

Walking is not permitted within the reserve but we can arrange a nature walk within the environs of the camp and there is an area in the reserve approximately an hour away where you are able to walk along a small gorge of the Sand River.

GET ARTY ON SAFARI

Each tent has a watercolour set and artist pad for you to use during your stay. Get creative in the camp's idyllic, artistic surroundings and paint the unique scenery, wildlife, flora and fauna.

SALA'S CAMP ACTIVITIES EXCLUDED

BALLOONING

Ballooning is a popular activity in the Mara particularly during the migration. Experience the magical Masai Mara from the comfort of a hot air balloon. Flights usually last one hour and include breakfast and a game drive. The whole experience will take three hours. The launch site is two kilometres from the Talek Gate, which is inside the reserve. The cost of this will be US$ 450 per person.

SPA TREATMENTS

ELEPHANT RUB

Under the shade of the African Green Heart trees this deep, gentle, slow massage will relax strained and tired muscles and revitalize you for your afternoon game drive.
