"Immerse yourself in "romancing the vine", feel moved by your visit to our valley. In this way, I hope to further enrich your stay at La Clé. – MARK DENDY YOUNG

Winemaker, father and Franschhoek local of almost 50 years – Mark Dendy Young has a fiery passion for wine and sharing his knowledge as he unlocks the mysteries of the Franschhoek Valley. We are honoured that Mark has chosen La Clé des Montagnes as his first and exclusive 'partner in wine'. He invites you to share in his passion.

Mark is the previous owner of the adored wine farm, La Petite Ferme, and has been making wine for 22 years. He has earned more than 50 gold and double gold medals at various national and international wine competitions. Mark continues to produce wines that are grown at high altitude vineyards under his label Cape Elevation Vineyards.

He believes in a wine journey that has been thoughtfully curated and suited to the characteristics, taste buds and joie de vivre of each group of guests. Allow Mark to share his expertise of the countless vineyard options within the Franschhoek Valley with you to ensure that the experience exceeds your expectations.

Discover the magnificent Franschhoek Valley and the surrounding vineyards. Unlock the many mysteries and scenic wonders with this bespoke Cape Winelands experience led by this local savant. History, art and cuisine are intertwined, making this more than just another wine tour. Your journey is specifically tailored - whether you're a seasoned expert or simply a lover of fine wine and fun!

Begin at La Clé des Montagnes with a brief introduction and vineyard tour. Be driven in a luxury vehicle to wine farms for fully-guided tastings, private tours and an in depth understanding of new world wines.

Each journey includes collection & drop off at La Clé des Montagnes, time at 4 wine farms within the Franschhoek Valley, entrance & tasting fees, sparkling/still water.

Lunch, additional tastings & personal items purchased are for guests' own account.
