FRANSCHHOEK

Interior Designer – Jacques Erasmus

Artist, chef, visionary, interior designer – Jacques Erasmus is a man who wears a variety of stylish hats and is renowned in South Africa for his impeccable taste. We are honoured to be working with him on our latest offering – La Clé Lodge.

Jacques is the owner and dreamer behind Hemelhuijs, an eatery in the heart of Cape Town celebrated for its eclectic style, elegant simplicity and culinary creativity. Jacques believes in telling a story through the senses, captivating guests and taking them on a journey through the experiences he creates. No where is this more true than at La Clé Lodge where modern styling meets the classic charm of a traditional Cape Dutch home.

The 5-bedroom villa has been completely renovated and reimagined through the eyes of Jacques to incorporate the warmth of raw materials, the modernity of glass and steel as well as the comfort of plush furnishings. Under the management of Scott and Melanie Shepherd, culinary finesse becomes a focal point of the lodge with ample space to enjoy the magnificent views and welcoming interiors over a delicious meal or picnic beneath the trees in the expansive, scenic grounds.

Available on an exclusive use and per room basis, we look forward to welcoming our guests into the imagination of Jacques Erasmus at La Clé Lodge in 2018.
