

Bryan Jackson – Co-owner & Safari Manager

A New Zealander by birth he first visited Africa in the 1970's. Bryan never left and has been guiding in the Luangwa Valley for over 20 years.

Based at Tafika, Bryan not only contributes significantly to Remote Africa's guiding experience, but also provides photographic expertise for specialized photographic safaris. His wildlife photography has been honed by years of practice and a talented eye. Much of his work provides the face for Remote Africa's website and social media.

During the off-season Bryan resides in Cape Town from where he organises the occasional expedition to Central Africa for adventurous clients.

Isaac Zulu – Walking Safari Guide

Isaac was schooled in Zimbabwe and trained as an Agriculturalist in Zambia. He worked in Lochinvar as Assistant Ecologist and then joined Norman Carr's safari operation in Luangwa in 1974. Isaac guided at Chibembe, in South Luangwa, for 15 years followed by six years of guiding at Tongabezi in the Zambezi Valley.

Isaac spent time in northern Kafue before returning to the Luangwa, in 2001, when he joined the Remote Africa Safaris team.

Alex Phiri – Walking Safari Guide

Alex is a trained guide who has worked at Remote Africa Safaris since 2003. He has worked up the ranks from tea bearer to guide, a position he has permanently held after completing the Luangwa Valley guiding exam in 2007. Alex graduated to a walking guide in 2010.

Born a member of the Bisa Tribe, in Mkasanga Village, Alex's father worked as an electrician and handyman for the Coppingers during their early years in the Luangwa Valley.

Amon Zulu – Walking Safari Guide

Amon Zulu is a qualified driving guide who has worked his way through the ranks at Tafika, having been educated through the Tafika Fund Sponsorship programme.

He is a popular young man with a sparkling sense of humour. His wildlife knowledge and enthusiasm are excellent.

Lloyd Mwale – Driving Guide at Tafika Camp

Lloyd worked for Remote Africa Safaris for thirteen years before his enthusiasm for wildlife lead him to write his guiding exam in 2011. Lloyd worked as a waiter, spotter, driver and Chikoko Camp supervisor before becoming a guide. Now he guides driving safaris at Tafika where his sensitivity to nature and love of the Luangwa is shared with many.

Moffat Mwanza – Walking Safari Guide

Moffat completed his guide's license in 2013 and is one of the latest additions to the guiding team. He is from Mkungule near Mpika and has spent the last four years in Mwaleshi Camp in the North Park as the camp host and trainee guide. Now a qualified walking guide, Moffat's friendly nature and wildlife knowledge add great value to the team.

Brent Harris – Walking Safari Guide

Brent grew up in Kwa-Zulu Natal, South Africa. His fascination with nature led him on a formative solo adventure through the Amazon and into a privileged bond rehabilitating a Puma in the rainforests of Bolivia. He has worked passionately as a guide and manager at numerous camps throughout Southern Africa, spending the last five years focused on Zambia.

In the off-season Brent leads groups to various wildlife destinations in Africa and speaks on nature related topics in the USA. When not in the bush you can find him happily surfing the waves of Hawaii.

Mukupa Ben Zulu – Driving Guide

Mukupa Ben is a qualified driving guide and is always thrilled to share his wildlife knowledge. He was initially sponsored by the Tafika Fund as a teacher at Mkasanga Basic School before joining Remote Africa as a tea bearer. Mukupa gained much of his bush knowhow from extensive first-hand experience. His vibrant character and fire making skill, creating fire using sticks and elephant dung, never fail to impress.

Mukupa's father, Ben Zulu, is a longstanding staff member and has worked as a watchman for Remote Africa's since the 90's. Remote Africa is always happy to welcome the next generation into the team.

Stephan Banda – Walking Safari Guide

Stephen is a seasoned Luangwa Valley guide, having worked with John and Carol in the safari business since the 80s. He worked his way up through the ranks at Chibembe Lodge where he passed his safari guides license in the early 90s.

Stephen took a short sabbatical from Remote Africa, to experience the Kafue National Park. Remote Africa welcomed him back for the 2016 season.
